

Many markets are such that a firm needs several resources to success.

Resources can be brought together in several ways:

- Self-development
- Acquire / be acquired
- JV
- License

If several markets require overlapping sets of resources, a sequential entry strategy can be planned.

If one resource can support the development of another, time is of the essence.